

Call for Papers
III Gran Canaria Spring Symposium on Challenges in Tourism Development (SSTD 2018)

Dear all,

Please find below the call for papers for the III Gran Canaria Spring Symposium on Challenges in Tourism Development (SSTD 2018) which will be held during the 7th and 8th June in Gran Canaria island (Spain) under the theme "Challenges in Sharing Economy, eWOM, Residential Tourism". We are very pleased to announce that Dr. Philip Pearce, Distinguished Professor at James Cook University (Australia) will be one of our keynote speakers at the III SSTD 2018 . The symposium is aimed at getting together several researchers from different disciplines and will bring the opportunity to exchange our views on new and old challenges in Tourism Development. If you want to enjoy this opportunity to share your work and know the work of your colleagues the call for abstracts is now open.

<http://tides.ulpgc.es/investigacion/sstd.html>

Looking forward to meet you next June in Gran Canaria.

Best regards,
Tides Institute