

Submission of papers at the "Euro-Asian Journal of sustainable energy development policy"

Brief presentation of scientific Journal

The Energy Policy and Development Centre (KEPA) of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens publishes since 2008 the scientific journal titled "Euro-Asian Journal of Sustainable Energy Development Policy".

The journal is part of the activities of PROMITHEAS network that is coordinated by KEPA. It is a semi-annual bilingual (English, Russian) publication addressing policy issues on energy and climate change.

The aim of the journal is to motivate and encourage the scientific and research human potential to communicate their research work in the aforementioned scientific areas. Efforts are made so as the journal to include articles produced by researchers, members of PROMITHEAS network and "BSEC-Green Energy Network".

The scientific journal hosts articles that are peer – viewed by the members of the Editorial Board, consisted of professors with international recognition on their scientific work.

The journal has ISSN numbers for printed and electronic version.
