19. Assessment methods:

Students' knowledge is tested at the work review (max. 51 points) and the final exam (max. 41 points). At the review of the paper and the final exam, the student's attendance at lectures and exercises (max. 16 points) and demonstrated activity are scored.

The total number of points is obtained by summing the number of points won from all activities during the semester. Through continuous activity of pre-examination obligations throughout the semester, the student can achieve 60 points. (12 + 12 + 12 + 12 + 12 + 20 + 10 + 10) +10), which is 60% of the total exam, while the remaining 40% is achieved in the final exam.

The knowledge test at the final exam is primarily practical, written and / or oral.

Written and / or oral examination is done by testing and asking questions by the subject teacher.

The grade on the exam is based on the total number of points earned by the student by fulfilling pre-exam obligations and taking the exam, and according to the quality of acquired knowledge and skills, it contains a maximum of 100 points and is determined according to the following scale: 1. Attendance at lectures and exercises 8%

2. Activity - diligence in lectures and exercises 8%

3. Practical work 12%

4. Seminar, research work, innovation 17%

5. Critical analysis of content and form 12%

20. Assessment components:

The final grade is formed in relation to the total number of points achieved during the semester, ie pre-examination obligations and the final exam itself.
