16. Learning outcomes:

At the end of the semester students who acquainted themselves with the course outline and it's objectives and completed course requirements should be able to categorize basic characteristics of Turkish phonetics, conduct morphological analysis of words in Turkish language, distinguish word bases from suffixes that are added to a base of a word in order to form a new word and to analyze and know the difference between the most common models of verb sentences and noun sentences.

17. Course content:

Definition and the outline of the course: introduction to the history of Turkish language; definition and classification of vowels and consonants in Turkish language; relation between phonetics and phonology (Turkish language examples); word structure- rules of phonotactic and morphotactic rules in Turkish language; basic changes on morphological level: vowel and consonants assimilation (Vocal Harmony ); progressive and regressive assimilation; the most common models of verb sentences and noun sentences.

18. Learning methods:

Classes are held using various multimedia teaching aids, active study and active participation of students in the teaching process. Various types of written assignments (essays, papers, seminars, etc.) as homework, in-class activities.

The language of instruction is Bosnian and Turkish.

19. Assessment methods:

Over the semester, students produce two written assignments (essays) and take the final exam on a given topic. For each of the written assignments, students can earn a maximum of 20 points. For continued active in-class participation over the semester students can earn a maximum of 10 points. Test points are calculated into the final grade if students earn at least 10 points per test.

The final exam is taken in the written form. It includes the topics covered over the semester, both in the lectures and practice classes. The maximum number of points that each student can earn is 50. In order to pass the final exam, students are required to earn at least 25 points.

20. Assessment components:

Pre-exam points amount to a maximum of 50 points and the maximum number of points that can be earned on the final exam is 50. Pre-exam points include two test over the semester, each earning a maximum of 20 points, attendance and in-class active participation for which students can earn a maximum of 10 point. This amounts to a total of 100 points (50+40+10).

The minimum number of points required to pass an exam is 54:

54-63=6 (six)

64-73=7 (seven)

74-83=8 (eight)

84-93=9 (nine)

94-100=10 (ten)

with 6 being the lowest and 10 being the highest grade.
