18. Learning methods:

Lectures are interactive. During the lectures, teacher requires maximum students involvement in debate about particular teaching unit.

19. Assessment methods:

Student can collect maximum 100 points - 50 points during the teaching process and 50 points on final oral exam. In the second half of the semester students are supposed to write colloquium which includes previously treated topics on lectures and practices. At the colloquium, student can achieve a maximum of 20 points. Colloquium is passed if student collects minimum 11 points.

As part of the pre-exam obligations, students are required to make individual or group seminar paper concerning topics from the contents of the subject. Seminar paper is to be submitted in writing to the teacher for review and evaluation, and then presented orally. In the preparation and presentation of the group seminar paper, all students from the group are to be engaged equally, whose participation is valorized individually. For the finished and presented seminar, student can achieve from 0 to 10 points. Also, for continuous interactive role during the lectures throughout the semester, the student can achieve from 0 to 10 points.

The final exam is oral.

At the oral exam students answer four or five questions from the subject units that are not passed at the colloquium. At the oral exam student can achieve 50 points.

20. Assessment components:

Exam grade is based on the total number of points a student achieves by completing pre-exam requirements and oral exam, according to the quality of the acquired knowledge and skills, contains a maximum of 100 points, and is determined according to the following scale:

Obligations of Student	points
